Since the rains the farmers are very busy with their farms.

GRAYS SCHOOL.

Grays School, May 26.—Our little community seems to be all life again since the nice showers of rain that have fallen lately. Cotton has been kept back so late it made all seem dull, very dull. Not a stand in some places yet. Some corn looks well, also some oats, but yet we live in hope.

All seemed to be in fine spirits yesterday, except in the case of some who have had very bad accidents.

One, Mr. Tom Green fell over some plank nailed across the door of his son's home. The aged grandfather, with a churn of milk in his arms, fell and threw his shoulder out of place, also breaking his arm. He seems to be resting well under the treatment of his physician, Dr. Posey. The neighbors have set apart to meet with each other tomorrow and give him a day's work. We are glad to state that his son, Jap, is improving though he is not able to be up yet.

Mrs. B. B. Gossett is up again. We will be glad to see her out with her friends soon.

Mr. Garren, of Columbia, was a visitor at his father's home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntire, of Woodruff, visited their sons Saturday night.

Mrs. Caroline Rodgers visited her daughter, Mrs. Gossett, also.

Miss Wil Lou Gray was in our section with Miss Madge Harris Saturday, to the delight of each one of our Tomato club girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McIntire had as their guests yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomas and family and Miss Hannah Babb.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nix had as their guests, Mr. Claude McIntire and family.

Death of Eugene Riddle.

Gray Court, May 18.—On May 15, the death angel came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eliza M. Riddle and took away their 11 year old son, Eugene. He had been an invalid almost his entire life but he is now resting safely in the arms of Jesus.

The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. H. L. Baggott after which the body was carried to Friendship Church and laid to rest in the cemetery. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

COATED TONGUE MEANS LAZY LIVER

A Lazy Liver Needs a Dose of Dodson's Liver Tonic—Guaranteed to Take Place of Calomel.

When your doctor looks to see if your tongue is coated, he is trying to find out if your liver is working properly. A few years ago doctors had to prescribe calomel—there was nothing else to give.

Recently in many sections of the country Dodson's Liver Tonic has practically taken the place of calomel as a liver remedy. Dodson's Liver Tonic is mild, pleasant tasting and harmless—which makes it a fine medicine for use when your children become bilious and constipated. But the most remarkable feature of Dodson's Liver Tonic is the fact that Laurens Drug Co. who sell it, guarantee it absolutely. The druggists will return your money without argument if a bottle fails to give entire satisfaction.

Price 50 cents. We suggest that you get a bottle today and have it ready for the next member of your family whose liver goes wrong.

DIALS.

Dials, May 26.—Mr. Sam Nash, of Fountain Inn, was the week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. Robert Gray, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris and children, spent Sunday with Mr. D. D. Harris and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Curry have returned from a visit with relatives in Greenville.

Mrs. Ambrose Holder and children spent several days in Greenville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Martin were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harris Sunday.

Mrs. H. Y. Simmons had as her guest Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owings and children, of Fountain Inn.

Mrs. Mary Bolt has returned to her home in Hendersonville, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. J. R. Brownlee and family.

Mrs. Laura Babb, and Mary Ann Ball of Laurens, were in our midst recently, visiting relatives.

Mr. John Curry, while hunting the other Friday afternoon, succeeded in bringing down a bird that was out of the ordinary class of birds bagged in these diggings. Mr. Curry had reached the ford of Dials Creek, when he heard a commotion above. Looking up he saw a very large bird, which, having become worried by a crowd of crows,

(as they were following it and making a tremendous noise) alighted on a bough of a tree. Of course the gun was called into action, and the bird fell to the ground dead. Judge of Mr. Curry's surprise when he saw it was an eagle, measuring (so they say) seven and one half feet from tip to tip. How it came to be this far from its native haunts is a mystery. It seemed to have been tired or it would not have been flying so near the earth. A large crowd went to have a look at the bird, to many of whom it was a "rare avis" indeed, as they'd never seen an eagle before.

Vacation days are nearly here. A few days longer and all our boys and girls will be at home. The first of our girls to arrive, are Misses Cecil Owings, and Nita Hunter from Chicago.

Those who attended the Horse Show at Greenville, from here were: Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Brooks, and Messrs. D. D. Brownlee, Ambrose Holder, Baskell and Vance Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Curry, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Z. N. Gray and family.

I wonder, esteemed Hillside correspondent, if you live in Laurens or Greenville county. Pity my ignorance now. It is with shame that I confess I've never even passed through your little community (if I did I didn't know it). True I hear of your "garden spot", through the medium of The Advertiser, and The Tribune, yet you "can search me" if I know in which county you live. Surely living in Laurens county you don't want to worst yourself) and work for that new county movement. Movement will be all it will amount to (I hope) for there's nothing doing in these "diggings" toward voting for the new county. Of course, there may be a few exceptions, but I doubt it.

Miss Jennie Bell Watkins returned to her home near Rabun Sunday, after a visit with Miss Dewey Armstrong.

Mr. Pierce Thomason spent Saturday night with Mr. Land Ropp and family of Gray Court.

Misses Ostell Willis, and Grace Owings were in Laurens shopping Wednesday.

Misses Ruth Curry and Nell McCall, members of the graduating class of the G. C. and O. high school, attended the reception Saturday evening, given in honor of the graduating class by Mrs. Cannon of Gray Court.

A masterly discourse was delivered at the church here Sunday afternoon by the pastor. As usual Mr. Munnerlyn pleased his audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Fate Henderson of the Friendship community, visited Mr. Switzer and family Sunday.

Mr. W. Ray Anderson of Laurens filled his usual appointment at Flat Rough Saturday night and Sunday.
